Docket Text:

ORDER denying [3] Motion to Strike -- The plaintiff's motion, docket entry ("DE") [3], asking the court to strike the motion of the British Broadcasting Corporation ("BBC") to quash a subpoena, DE [1], as well as the BBC's supporting memorandum of law, DE [2], is denied. Regardless of the best reading of Local Civil Rule 37.3 in the context of Rule 45 Subpoena, the issues raised in the BBC's motion warrant resolution on the merits. The plaintiff may respond to the merits of the motion to quash in the format of its choice (a letter of up to three pages, or a longer memorandum of law), and the BBC may submit a reply on the merits, also in the format of its choice. The parties shall meet and confer and submit, no later than August 9, 2011, a proposed schedule for such submissions, as well for oral argument. Compliance with the underlying subpoena is stayed pending the resolution of the motion to quash. Ordered by Magistrate Judge James Orenstein on 8/2/2011. (Lardo, Melissa)
